Honorable Thomas E. Stine

Nebraska Workers’ Compensation Court
Lincoln, NE

Thomas E. Stine is a judge in the Workers' Compensation Court in Nebraska. He was appointed by Governor Dave Heineman in September 2011. Stine was appointed to fill the vacancy left after the retirement of Michael P. Cavel. He was retained in 2014 for a term that expires in 2020.

Prior to joining the court, Stine was an attorney in private practice. He also spent six years as chief of the Civil Litigation Bureau for the Nebraska Department of Justice.

Stine received his undergraduate degree from Wayne State College and his law degree from the University of South Dakota School of Law.
