

AnnaMarie Kim-Miller is currently a State Mediator for the Division of Administrative Hearings in Orlando, Florida. She obtained a Bachelor's of Arts degree from Emory University in 1991 and earned her Jurisprudence Doctorate degree from the University of Florida, College of Law in 1995. AnnaMarie has worked as an Assistant State Attorney, workers' compensation, personal injury and liability defense attorney and as staff counsel for Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in Orlando, Florida before getting circuit court certified as a mediator.

AnnaMarie is involved with The Friends of 440 Scholarship Fund, Give Kids The World through WCI, Teaching Faculty for Trial Advocacy at the University of Florida, College of Law, The Judge Wieland American Inn of Court and was a board member of Professional Mediation Institute for many years as well as several community service organizations.

Email: annamariekim@doah.state.fl.us

Phone: 407.488.3179