

Jeffery Taylor

Jeffrey Taylor is the owner and operator of MSA Annuity, LLC and Taylor Insurance Consulting. He has more than three decades of claims negotiating experience. He is one of the leading authorities on Medicare Set Asides and Social Security Disability. Mr. Taylor specializes in mediation representation, negotiating settlements on high exposure and the most difficult of cases. He is an expert negotiator who uses his industry knowledge, structured settlement creativity and unique talents to resolve the most challenging of cases. His clients include some of the largest and most successful workers' compensation organizations in the country. He has successfully resolved claims nationwide and has negotiated thousands of cases.

Previously, Mr. Taylor was the Administrator of Professional Business Owners Self-Insurance Fund and Chief Operating Officer for Professional Business Owners, a Managing General Agency specializing in workers' compensation. Mr. Taylor is fully knowledgeable in all aspects of the Workers' Compensation industry. He has managed self-insured programs as well as excess and reinsurance programs. He has also personally handled workers' compensation, bodily injury, Second Injury and subrogation claims.

Mr. Taylor graduated from the University of West Florida where he received a B.S. in Sports Science and a B.S. in Health Education. He holds a multi-line adjuster's license and Health, Life and Annuity license. He is a highly regarded speaker at the Florida Workers' Compensation Educational Conference held annually in Orlando, Florida. For nearly twenty years, he moderated the well-attended "Hot Topics" portion of the program.
