Maxine Topper

Maxine Topper is Executive Vice President of Physicians Health Center, an Occupational Medicine practice in Miami, Florida. Physicians Health Center has five locations and has been dedicated exclusively to the specialty of Occupational Medicine for over three decades.

Prior to joining Physicians Health Center, Max worked in provider network development for Vincam Human Resources and Prudential Insurance.

Max is a graduate of Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey. She serves on the Planning Committee for the Workers Compensation Institute and chairs the Return To Work Track for the Annual Conference. She co-founded the "Emerging Trends in Workers Compensation Seminar Series," which is in its 7th year of presenting national trends topics and speakers for a Miami Dade audience.

She is on the Advisory Board of the Miami Chapter of RIMS, The Safety Alliance for Excellence in Miami and the Miami International Airport Management Council.