

Honorable Suzette Carlisle

State of Missouri, Office of Administration
St. Louis, MO

Judge Suzette Carlisle earned a B.S. degree and J.D. degrees from St. Louis University, an MBA from Lindenwood College, and a Masters' degree in Judicial Studies from the University of Nevada-Reno ("UNR"). Currently, she is a candidate for a Ph.D. in judicial studies from UNR. Since 2005, Judge Carlisle has served as an administrative law judge ("ALJ") with the Missouri Division of Workers' Compensation. She served as a legal advisor in the same office for 8 years before becoming an ALJ. For a brief time Judge Carlisle served as a criminal defense attorney, and later as an Assistant Circuit Attorney in St. Louis City.