Honorable Jane Williams

Kentucky Department of Workers' Claims
London, KY

Jane Rice Williams is an Administrative Law Judge with the Kentucky Department of Workers Claims. She received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Kentucky and Juris Doctorate from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. She was admitted to the practice of law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky in October of 1995 and is a member of the Kentucky and Laurel County Bar Associations. She serves on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Workers' Compensation Judiciary and served as part of the Kentucky delegation to the "New Judges College" for the new Tennessee Court of Workers' Compensation Claims. In 2017, she was inducted as a Fellow of the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers. She presents annually for various workers' compensation seminars including NAWCJ, Comp Ed, KWCEA and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. Judge Williams is a native of Harlan, Kentucky. She was in private practice in Lexington and then London from 1995 until July 2012 handling a variety of civil matters with a concentration on workers' compensation law representing both plaintiffs and defendants. Judge Williams was appointed as an Administrative Law Judge and has served in that position since July 15, 2012.
