After graduating from University of Wisconsin- Stout in 1998 with honors, Lisa Rosenau, started her HR career at Ashley Furniture. She quickly earned a reputation for being zealous in representing the interests of her employer, while still being compassionate about the employee partners so critical to its success.

With over two decades of experience, Lisa is currently the Director of Human Resources at Solar Plastics, a custom rotational molding manufacturer that is part of ATEK Companies.

Lisa has spent her career dedicated to creating a safe, empowering, and positive zone where both company and employee can thrive and grow together for mutual advantage.
